ABOUT US

Bungamati Foundation Nepal (BFN) is a non-government, non-political, non-religious, nonprofit social organization working to improve children learning since 2004.

Bungamati Foundation Nepal (BFN), a non-profit since 2004, works in education for disadvantaged children in Nepal. Dedicated to equal opportunity, BFN bridges the education gap by ensuring all children, regardless of background, have a chance to learn and thrive. BFN understands the importance of education in transforming lives and communities.

SPONSORSHIP DISTRIBUTION 2024

BFN provided sponsorship to regular sponsored students. There were 125 students received sponsorship from 16 schools. They have received exercise books, stationaries, uniform, bags, shoes etc. as their need in study. We have distributed sponsorship of 2024. As new academics year stars from mid-April its fruitful to distributed sponsorship. BFN distributed upgraded class books, new uniforms, bags, shoes which helps to their academic new year.

CERTIFICATION TO THE TEACHERS

Bungamati Foundation Nepal organized a three-day integrated teaching and learning workshop for 16 community schools in the Lalitpur district. The workshop saw the participation of 35 dedicated grade teachers. In recognition of their commitment and the skills they acquired, BFN awarded certificates of appreciation to all participants. These certificates were distributed by a Bungamati ward member, highlighting the significance of their achievement.

Receiving these certificates not only acknowledges the teachers' dedication to professional development but also underscores the importance of continuous learning in enhancing classroom experiences. BFN also gathered feedback and experiences from teachers who participated in the program.

SPONSORSHIP DISTRIBUTION TO REMOTE AREA CHILDREN

In the remote areas of Lalitpur, Nepal, access to basic educational resources still remains a challenge for many children. The sponsorship packages provided by Bungamati Foundation Nepal (BFN) are crucial in addressing this gap.

So, Bungamati Foundation Nepal (BFN) distributed sponsorship packages for 2024 to children in remote areas of Lalitpur, Nepal. A total of 25 children received essential educational materials, including books, uniforms, shoes, and school bags. Children from six community schools, along with their teachers, participated in the distribution program. This initiative underscores BFN's commitment to supporting education in remote communities and ensuring that every child has the resources they need to succeed academically.

EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS SUPPORT

Bungamati Foundation Nepal (BFN) has provided educational materials to Chandi Devi Basic School to support learning activities in the new academic year. The teachers at this school have been actively participating in various BFN teaching workshops, resulting in significant improvements in their teaching methods. Additionally, BFN is offering sponsorship to the children of Chandi Devi Basic School, who come from the Danuwar community, a historically marginalized group in Nepali society. Supporting this school is crucial in making education more accessible to this underprivileged community, fostering their development and integration into mainstream society.
